

60002020327.txt

So-called "privacy" regulations that give free rein to Obama ally and serial privacy violator Google while blocking competitors from doing the same things Google does shows that the only change this President has championed after eight years is blatant corporate cronyism.