

60002061635.txt

Because the problem that was addressed by the 15dB limitation has been otherwise remedied, I strongly support the elimination of an Amateur Service rule, spelled out in Part 97.317(a)(2), that amateur amplifiers not be able to boost the RF input signal by more than 15 dB.