

60002063908.txt

I am an extra class radio amateur. It is time to remove antiquated and counterproductive rules from the amateur service. This limitation on amplifiers is unnecessary and part of the cruft in Part 97 rules that make it more difficult for Amateurs to comply with regulation, while providing no purpose in bettering the use of radio spectrum.
I support this proposal.