I just recently signed a contract for two years and now I find that certain things were not stated truthfully. For example I did not know I would not be able to have a base phone in my bedroom if I did not have a cable box in my bedroom. I don't see well I need the big dial. My internet only reaches a small portion of my house and I guess I would have to rent more boxes to cover my office and bedroom. I have been paying for months before I found out I could buy my own contract out.

This whole thing has been so disturbing and deceptive. Would love to have affordable phone TV and internet
