

60002078250.txt

I own a vessel that charters guests in Hawaii. I fully support the USCG effort to have a blanket waiver to allow a class "D" VHF DSC radio instead of a class "A" VHF DSC radio. This blanket waiver will save many small operators the $195.00 application fee to request a FCC waiver. This effort by the USCG makes good common sense and eliminates any negative economic and regulatory impacts to small family businesses in an already tightening market.