

60002080912.txt

I oppose unnecessary set-top box regulations that invade the privacy of our personal viewing and deprive consumers of important protections that safeguard our viewing choices and let us control how our viewing information is used, including those that protect our children from being tracked and bombarded with Internet-style advertising on TV.