

60002082668.txt

Most of my calls at home are robo calls. They are non stop, repetitive and a nuisance since calls are made at all hours day and night. Although I like speaking better on the home phone since reception is better than a cell, I am seriously thinking of getting rid of the home phone like so many other consumers.