

60002083196.txt

We get six to eight of these calls on a daily basis. Other than a spurious off shore daily collection call for a family member who has been deceased for 3 years, they are not for debt collection, but sales and solicitations. They are an intrusive invasion of privacy and a serious nuisance. Please end all telemarketing and excessive collection calls.