

60002089078.txt

Visitors in my home are invited and welcome. Intruders are neither invited nor are they welcome. Robo calls are an intrusion. They are not invited, welcome nor wanted. I should be able to decide who comes into my home whether it is through the door or through the phone. I do not appreciate a computer making that decision for me.