

60002089113.txt

Using the phone while driving is a hazard to us all. With commute times getting longer every year, more people are inclined to answer their phones while driving. Eliminating the incessant phone calls from robocallers would make our daily commutes much safer and less stressful. Please make them stop.