

60002089173.txt

I had a vacation day today, which was interrupted by at robocalls on both my home phone and cell phone. At work, in my car, no matter what I do, I am plagued by robocalls. Why do these companies have the right to use my cell phone minutes and interrupt anything I may be doing? There were at least three of these calls on each of my phones (so far).