Re: AT&T Corp. v. Great Lakes Commc'ns Corp., Docket No. 16-170, File No. EB-16-MD-001

Counsel,

On May 13, 2016, AT&T Corp. and Great Lakes Communications Corp. requested that the Commission enter their proposed Protective Order in the above-referenced docket.¹ The proposed Protective Order, a copy of which is attached, established procedures “to facilitate and expedite the production and review of documents containing trade secrets and commercial or financial information which is privileged or confidential, and to govern the use and disclosure of such information in this proceeding.”

Having reviewed the proposed Protective Order, we note that it is based largely upon the Model Protective Order approved by the Commission in Examination of Current Policy Concerning the Treatment of Confidential Information Submitted to the Commission, Report and Order, 13 FCC Rcd 24816, Appendix C (1998). We are satisfied that granting the parties’ request will serve the public interest. Specifically, the protective order will ensure that, in addition to Commission staff, only the parties’ counsel and authorized representatives will have access to privileged or confidential information.

Accordingly, we hereby adopt the proposed Protective Order, making no changes to it as submitted.

This letter ruling is issued pursuant to Sections 4(i), 4(j), and 208 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), 154(j), 208, and authority delegated by Sections 0.111, 0.311, 1.729, and 1.731 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.111, 0.311, 1.729, 1.731.

Any objection must be filed at the Commission and served on Counsel representing, retaining or employing such person within two business days after receiving a copy of that person's Declaration. The Submitting Party shall make such information available for review by those persons that have executed a Declaration based on Appendix A and that are not the subject of an unresolved objection. Notwithstanding anything in this Paragraph or in Paragraph 10, the Submitting Party may agree in writing that any person that has executed a Declaration based on Appendix A is not subject to the two business day waiting period and may obtain Confidential Material immediately.

11. Use of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. This shall not preclude the use of any material or information that is in the public domain or has been developed independently by any other person who has not had access to the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information nor otherwise learned of its contents.

12. Pleadings Using Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. Submitting Parties and Reviewing Parties may, in any pleadings that they file in this proceeding, reference the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, but only if they comply with the following procedures:

a. Any portions of the pleadings that contain or disclose Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information must be physically segregated from the remainder of the pleadings and filed under seal;

b. The portions containing or disclosing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information must be covered by a separate letter referencing this Protective Order;

c. Each page of any Party's filing that contains or discloses Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information subject to this Order must be clearly marked as applicable with the following designations or such other similar designations as to provide reasonable notice as to the contents of such materials:

“Confidential Information included pursuant to Protective Order, AT&T Corp. v. Great Lakes Communication Corporation, File No. ___;” and “Highly Confidential Information included pursuant to Protective Order, AT&T Corp. v. Great Lakes Communication Corporation, File No. ___.

d. Any portion of a pleading that contains Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, to the extent it is required to be served, shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission and Outside Counsel of Record for the Reviewing Party. Such portions that contain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall be filed under seal. They shall not be placed in the Commission's public file unless the Commission directs otherwise (with notice to the Submitting Party and an opportunity to comment on such proposed disclosure). A Submitting Party or a Reviewing Party filing a pleading containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall also file redacted copies of the pleading as follows:

(i) One original and one copy of the pleading shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission containing no Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, which shall be placed in the Commission's public files. The public version of the pleading shall bear on the front page the legend "PUBLIC VERSION" and shall clearly indicate where confidential material has been redacted from an individual page. If any pages are removed in their entirety to prevent disclosure of confidential information, the Submitting Party shall insert a placeholder that (a) identifies each omitted document by its page, exhibit, or appendix number, (b) includes a descriptive title for the omitted document, and (c) contains the words "CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS OMITTED" below the descriptive title.

(ii) In cases where a pleading contains Confidential Information, but not Highly Confidential Information, one original and three copies of the pleading shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission containing such Confidential Information. This version of the pleading shall not be placed in the Commission's public files but may be made available to those persons authorized by this Order to review Confidential Information. The confidential version of the pleading shall state on the front page in bold print, "DO NOT RELEASE," "NOT FOR INCLUSION IN THE PUBLIC RECORD," and on each page containing Confidential Information. In addition, the confidential version of the pleading shall identify any Confidential Information by including the legend "BEGIN CONFIDENTIAL" and "END CONFIDENTIAL" at the beginning and end of any such information.

(iii) In cases where a pleading contains both Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information, one original and three copies of the pleading shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission containing Confidential Information, but not Highly Confidential Information. Further, one original and three copies of the pleading shall be filed containing both Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information. These versions of the pleading shall not be placed in the Commission's public files but may be made available to those persons authorized by this Order to review Confidential Information. The confidential and highly confidential versions of the pleading shall state on the front pages in bold print, "DO NOT RELEASE," "NOT FOR INCLUSION IN THE PUBLIC RECORD," and on each page containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. In addition, the confidential and highly confidential versions of the pleading shall identify any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information by including the legend “BEGIN CONFIDENTIAL” and “END CONFIDENTIAL” at the beginning and end of any such information.

A Submitting Party or a Reviewing Party may provide courtesy copies of pleadings containing Confidential Information and/or Highly Confidential Information to Commission staff so long as the notation required by subsection c. of this paragraph is not removed.

13. Challenges to the Designation of Confidential or Highly Confidential Information. To the extent a party disputes whether material designated pursuant to this Protective Order and 47 C.F.R. § 0.459 by a Submitting Party is Confidential or Highly Confidential Information as defined in Paragraphs 1(c) and 1(d) above, the challenging party may file a motion with the Commission to that effect pursuant to 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.727 and 1.731, and the Submitting Party will then have five (5) business days to file a response. Until the motion is decided by the Commission, the information at issue will be treated consistent with the manner in which it was initially designated by the Submitting Party.

14. Violations of Protective Order. Should a Reviewing Party that has properly obtained access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information under this Protective Order violate any of its terms, it shall immediately convey that fact to the Commission and to the Submitting Party. Further, should such violation consist of improper disclosure or use of such information, the violating party shall take all necessary steps to remedy the improper disclosure or use. The violating party shall also immediately notify the Commission and the Submitting Party, in writing, of the identity of each party known or reasonably suspected to have obtained such information through any such disclosure. The Commission retains its full authority to fashion appropriate sanctions for violations of this Protective Order, including but not limited to suspension or disbarment of attorneys from practice before the Commission, forfeitures, cease and desist orders, and denial of further access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information in this or any other Commission proceeding. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit any other rights and remedies available to the Submitting Party at law or equity against any party using Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information in a manner not authorized by this Protective Order.

15. Termination of Proceeding. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission or a court of competent jurisdiction, within 30 days after final resolution of this proceeding (which includes any administrative or judicial appeals), Reviewing Parties (including their Counsel, Authorized Representatives, and Outside Consultants) shall destroy or return to the Submitting Party all Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information as well as all copies and derivative materials made. The Reviewing Party shall certify in a writing served on the Commission and the Submitting Party that no material whatsoever derived from such information has been retained by any person having access thereto, except that Counsel to a Reviewing Party may retain two copies of pleadings and supporting exhibits submitted on behalf of the Reviewing Party and other attorney work product. Any such information contained in any copies of pleadings retained by Counsel to a Reviewing Party or in materials that have not been destroyed pursuant to this paragraph shall be protected from disclosure or use indefinitely in accordance with Paragraphs 9 and 11 of this Protective Order unless such information is released from the restrictions of this Order either through written agreement of the parties, or pursuant to the order of the Commission or a court having jurisdiction.

16. No Waiver of Confidentiality. Disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information as provided herein shall not be deemed a waiver by the Submitting Party of any privilege or entitlement to confidential treatment of such information. Reviewing Parties, by viewing these materials: (a) agree not to assert any such waiver; (b) agree not to use information derived from any such materials to seek disclosure in any other proceeding; and (c) agree that accidental disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege.

17. Client Consultation. Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent or otherwise restrict Counsel from rendering advice to their clients relating to the conduct of this proceeding and any subsequent judicial proceeding arising therefrom and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such client(s), Counsel shall not disclose Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information to any person (including to In-House Counsel, in the case of Highly Confidential Information) who is not authorized pursuant to this Protective Order to receive such information.

18. Subpoena by Courts, Departments or Agencies. If a court, or a federal or state department or agency issues a subpoena or orders production of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information that a party has obtained under terms of this Protective Order, such party shall promptly notify each Submitting Party of the pendency of such subpoena or order. Consistent with the independent authority of any court, department or agency, such notification must be accomplished such that the Submitting Party has a full opportunity to oppose or seek any other available protection from such production prior to the production or disclosure of any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information.

19. Additional Rights Preserved. The entry of this Protective Order is without prejudice to the rights of the Submitting Party to apply for additional or different protection where it is deemed necessary or to the rights of the Reviewing Party to request further or renewed disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information.

20. Effect of Protective Order. This Protective Order constitutes an Order of the Commission and an agreement between the Reviewing Party, executing the attached Declaration, and the Submitting Party.

This letter ruling is issued pursuant to Sections 4(i), 4(j) and 208 of the Communications Act as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), 154(j) and 208, sections 0.457(d) and 1.720-1.736 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.457(d) and 1.720-1.736, and the authority delegated by sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.111 and 0.311.
