Robocallers are running ruthlessly and lawlessly over the public's cellphone and landline systems. I discontinued my landline because of this issue, but they call my cellphone, anyway, requiring me to employ a call blocker, which causes me to miss important calls. The "no-call" list is useless. Please take these steps, at a minimum: Debt collection robocallers must notify us of our right to stop receiving calls, The number of allowed calls or texts should be limited to no more than three per month, and only to those who directly hold federal debt - not friends and family, The number of allowed calls or texts should be limited to no more than three per month, and only to those who directly hold federal debt - not friends and family. There should also be a commonly easy way for users such as me, the average citizen and not an attorney, to enforce this law with accompanying serious and significant penalties.
