

60002091858.txt

As we all know their phone calls are multitudinous and even beyond the limited times they're permitted to call. Personally I would like to stop all such calls, but I realize they have a business to do, but I feel they should be highly limited. There is another point, that bugs me, we pay for their calls to us that we don't want.