

60002094503.txt

I would strongly ask that all robo-calling to cell phones be blocked. They are intrusive and unwanted. I am a physician and they interrupt patient visits when I need to have my cell phone on to receive emergency calls. I do not mind if they are left available for calls directly to those who are being notified about their debt - but not to their friends or family.