

60002094524.txt

Please do not further destroy the CW sub bands. These rule changes will ruin operations of CW signals among all the narrow band and digital stations. I can just hear what it would be like on a contest weekend. Further modifications of the current band plan and mode allocations could greatly hinder operations of qrp stations as well as others interested in CW. Some things are best left alone