

60002097557.txt

Aloha from Hawaii. For many years there have been restrictions on FAX advertising for good reason. For many of the same reasons, such as using a recipient's air time, text or data to send an unwanted message is interfering with the recipient's right to pay only for messages that are wanted. Any harassing messages sent at another person's expense should be disallowed.