

60002097848.txt

My cell phone service is prepaid and by the minute, which means I pay for getting a robocall. This is disgusting. I have not received robocalls from debt collectors, but I do receive robocalls. These criminals should be prosecuted and they should pay their victims a large punitive penalty that will discourage this heinous practice.