

60002098271.txt

It is my understanding that only firms you have previously done business with and charities are allowed to call. However, those restrictions are being ignored. We probably get ten calls on day on our land line and cell phones. They are a great irritant. I wish they could be eliminated.