

60002098935.txt

As a member of our federal government, you work for the people, not corrupt politicians and corrupt businesses. As such, you are obligated to engage in business practices that protect us. I urge you not to engage in trampling on our constitutional rights and our God-given freedom.