

60002099515.txt

A Communitarian relationship between business and government is not an American constitutional concept and definitely not an American form of governance; it facilitates corruption at it's worst. It's a form of Socialism which ultimately results the fleecing of the taxpaying Americans and greatly diminished "bang for the buck". AC