

60002112553.txt

I support the removal of the frequency and gain limits on power amplifiers. The primary reason for this change is to remove a regulatory impediment to the use of new technology, i.e. the SDR radios. In addition the limitations have not produced the results intended, CB is still loaded with illegal operations.