

I believe the use of morse code by amateurs is now totally within the confines of recreational purposes and there is no longer any public or governmental interest served by requiring code testing. I hold an extra class amateur radio license and am in favor of removing all morse code from the testing required to obtain any amateur license. Thank you for your attention in this matter.