

I agree with all of ARRL's proposals for reduceing the General class code speed to 5wpm, and to eliminate all Morse Code as soon as possible because it has become obsolete with the emergince of new technology. Morse Code is hindering new people from entering amature radio. Written exams should become more technical with the elimination of Morse Code. If the FCC is unable to police the frequencies then privitisation should be considered.