

I support a change to 5 WPM code speed for General class license. I also support a change to 13 WPM code speed for Extra class license. Since code is no longer necessary in the real world, I see no need for a higher speed requirement for licensing.

I also support the ARRL proposal to simplify the amateur radio license structure. Overall, this seems to be a very good plan.

Thank you for your attention.

Leigh M. Shears W6DWC