

Re: Cell phone location capability

I'm writing to oppose the proposed cell phone location capability requirement.

This is clearly an attempt by the federal government, and specifically the FBI, to keep tabs on the whereabouts of American citizens.

It is a gross violation of the privacy of American citizens, and should be promptly thrown out as unconstitutional if ever fully adopted.

Please drop this proposal.
Thanks very much for hearing my views.