

Wireless phone tracking takes away my liberty of privacy. I do not need the federal government trying to give all this security and widdeling away at my liberties. Get off our back. I worked for the government in service of my country for 42 years, and do not need a nany government trying to take care of my while all the time they are stealing my liberties such as privacy.