

This comment is in regard to the telegraphy (cw) requirement for amateur radio licensing. I feel it is very important to maintain the requirement for morse code testing at the 20 wpm for extra class license. The challenge and feeling of accomplishment, as well as pride derived from hard work and study, in general will produce a better operator. Easing the requirement would transform the amateur service into a worldwide citizen band nightmare.