attached is the ownership report for astraline. Tom handed me the form earlier this week and indicated that the equity/voting ratios for astraline limited partnership were incorrect. It appears that Terry Plannell owns a 37% equity interest. I am not sure where this interest was obtained, i.e. whether WHCT management or astraline company (or both) relinquished the equity. In addition, I am not aware of what affect (if any) the equity realignment may have had on voting interests. accordingly, both of these questions must be resolved.

In reviewing the report, I have also of Partnership, amendments to such articles, network affiliation agreements, etc.) Presumably these should be listed.

Further, if the equity change produced a change in votes were the appropriate documents filed with the Commission?

Finally, can a trustee company validly issue the certification of non-involvement in view of the substantial number of interlocking officers and directors with WHCT management and the fact that it owns 100% of the stock of WHCT management? You might also note that the certification as drafted is nonsensical. A trustee company has indicated it will not be involved in its own media activities.
