

This is America. There should not be anyone including the fbi to have built in surveillance capabilities on Law Abiding Citizens telephone equipment or equipment, cellphone equipment etc. I can't believe it would even be considered. It is your responsibility to protect the average American law abiding citizens from government violating our privacy. This is against the grain of our constitutional freedoms and this citizen will not tolerate it.