

I live in Mound City, KS which is basically in a valley. I can't get network television and thought I would have it on satellite so I didn't worry about it. Well, now that I've bought the dish, I still can't watch network television. I'd like to say what I really think about this "black-out" but it would probably get me sued! :) Please allow us to watch network television.

Thank you