

Dear Sirs,I am sending this to inform you of my situation and how unfair I think it is regarding the dis-continuation of our network satellite signals in which we paid for. We can not have roof top antenna's in our area due to covenant restrictions. I have tried other antenna's but have little success. I feel a person should be allowed to purchase network signals and watch them freely. I will appreciate any help you can give us with this matter.