

We are opposed to increased domestic surveillance especially via private telephones, whether cellular or not. We believe this proposal to be rebellious to the fourth amendment in particular, and the spirit of American freedom in general.