

We would like to favor the low power regulations and licensing. We would like to broadcast for the hard of hearing and handicapped using less than 10 watts. We have done this successfully in past, and would like to license this. We have been told that the FCC does not regulate at present time. Please contact me when this is legal.