Dear William Kennard, Chairman of FCC
 I, James Irvin Miller, Jr from Fremont, Ca. am upset about FCC has given broadcasters increaser more flexiblity on their actual obligations to provide closed captioning to deaf viewers. I demand to ask you to remove the exemption because Deaf viewers are able to read closed captioned on video or television and make them enjoy to understand as same as hearing viewers are able to listen voice device on television and video. Example: you follow the exemptions, closed captioned is removed on video or television for deaf viewers who unable to understand about the stories. unfairly, while voice device is not removed on video or television for hearing viewers who are able to understand about the stories.
 The exemption is totally unfair to all ages of deaf viewers because their deaf rights are removed wrongfully due to failure understandability the stories on video or television because of no closed captioning. importantly, very young deaf children are greatly understand to watch the stories on video or television. How can they understand the stories on video and television? They learn something by their eye to watch on closed captioned on video and television.

I have two young deaf children who enjoy to watch video and television because they can understand the stories because of Closed Captioning!!!! thanks for understandability,
 James Irvin Miller, Jr.
