

I am opposed to using cellular phones to track the location of users. My wife is due to deliver a baby soon and I am considering buying a phone so that she can call me when I am at school. I would be concerned about my privacy if this policy were passed.