

STOP! Don't pass legislation to charge long distance rates for Internet use. You will stop seniors from communicating with grandchildren far away. You will hinder small businesses that depend on this connection! You will make e-mails to our granddaughter in Morrocco impossible. (calls cost would be prohibitive. I know big business may abuse this medium but all us small businesses (and we are GROWING fast) will suffer