

I write in support of a change in regulations that would permit unlicensed "micro radio stations" to broadcast in areas where their signals would not interfere with already-licensed stations. Such a change would permit the free flow of ideas. Thank you.