

Bellcore Notes on the LEC Network (1990 pg 6-183) describe 1 16 digit number system, 1-9, 0, *, #, A, B, C, D. Most of today's switches have some provision for their use. Has any discussion considered using the A-D digits to extend the life of the current 10 digit dialing plan?