Re: Request for Waiver of Regulatory Fee

Dear Ms. Barlow:

This is in response to your request for a waiver of the FY 1997 regulatory fee for FM Radio Station KCCA, Colorado City, Arizona. You request relief arguing that you do not have the funds available to pay your regulatory fees.

The request for relief from the regulatory fees is untimely. On August 1, 1997, the Commission issued a Public Notice, FY 1997 Mass Media Regulatory Fees, to all licensees, advising them of their Fiscal Year 1997 regulatory fee obligations. Licensees were notified that fee payments were to be received by the Commission by September 19, 1997 and they were advised of their right to request waiver or deferment of the fees by September 19, 1997. The Commission in establishing the regulatory fee program said that it would "accept petitions for waiver, reduction and deferments [of the regulatory fees] so long as they are filed no later than the date payment is due." Implementation of Section 9 of the Communications Act, 9 FCC Rcd 5333, 5345 ¶ 34 (1994). On April 21, 1998, you were advised by letter that the Commission had no record for the payment of KCCA's FY 1997 regulatory fee and that the licensee was to either submit payment or proof of payment. There is no record of a response to the April 21, 1998 letter. It was only after the Commission advised you in further letters dated June 12, 1998 and July 27, 1998, that payment of the fee and the late payment penalty were due, and that KCCA may be subjected to further sanctions, that you filed your waiver request.

A review of the Commission's records and your latest comments indicate that you have made no attempt to show why you could not have filed a waiver request in a timely manner. Your failure to comply with the Commission's filing rules, has added to the Commission's regulatory burden and you have not made a compelling showing of why the Commission should grant your untimely request for relief from the regulatory fee and late payment penalty. Thus, your untimely waiver request is denied.

Ms. Valora Barlow

This is in regards to the 1997 Regulatory fee for Uzona Broadcasting Co and KCCA-FM.

At this time we are unable to pay this fee. I had put this on hold- trying to figure out a way to pay it. But each month, we are just able to pay for the power and utilities and we are trying the best we know how.

Could you please waive this fee for this year? My family has put so much effort and money into this station, and we hope to see a return within the next couple years. All of staff and DJs are all volunteering their time. Please consider this.

Thank You!

Valora Barlow

Dear Gentlemen:

According to our records, you have been issued two previous letters requesting payment of an unpaid 1997 regulatory fee for the above radio station. To date payment has not been received. This is the third and final demand for payment. Payment of the $200 1997 regulatory fee, and the 25% late payment penalty assessed under 47 C.F.R. § 1.1164 are now due. The U.S. Treasury is authorized to assess any additional interest penalties necessary to collect this debt. If you feel this indebtedness is incorrect or if you have proof of payment, you have 30 days from the date of this letter to provide any necessary documentation that will substantiate your claim.

Your remittance, along with a completed FCC Form 159, must be made payable to the Federal Communications Commission and mailed to the following address:

Dear Gentlemen:

This letter is in reference to the 1997 regulatory fee(s) for which payments were due to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) on September 19, 1997. You were advised by letter dated March 6, 1998, that an examination of the FCC's records indicated that there was no record of payment of the regulatory fee(s) for the following station(s).

KCCA-FM Colorado City, AZ

You were requested to either submit payment, or in the alternative, to submit proof of payment or documentation establishing that you are exempt from the regulatory fee requirement.

Payment of the $200 1997 regulatory fee, and the 25% late payment penalty assessed under 47 C.F.R. § 1.1164, are now due. Payment in full of $250 should be remitted with the enclosed Form 159 to the Federal Communications Commission, P.O. Box 358835, Pittsburgh, PA 15251-5835, pursuant to instructions on the Form 159.
