

Polk County Schools, FL has an acceptable use policy in place for students and educators. Some schools use filtering software. I believe that the acceptable use policy should be required. Users need to be held responsible for sites visited. Filtering software should be a school choice.