Re: Application for Consent to the Transfer of Control of Licenses from MediaOne Group, Inc. to
AT&T Corp.

CS Docket No. 99-251

Dear Ms. Salas:

On August 4, 1999, Susan Eid, Sean Lindsay and Doug Holmes of MediaOne Group, Inc., and Philip Verveer and Michael Jones of Willkie Farr & Gallagher met with the following Commission staff members with regard to the above-referenced application: To-Quyen Troung, Imani Ellis-Cheek, Anne Levine, and Sunil Daluvoy of the Cable Bureau, Jeff Lanning of the Office of the General Counsel, Howard Shelanski, the FCC Chief Economist, and Jonathan Levy and Jason Oxman of the Office of Plans and Policy.

We discussed MediaOne's business plans for a variety of services as detailed in a slide presentation used by MediaOne for the meeting (the Commission staff members were not provided a copy of the slide presentation). The slide presentation contains proprietary and confidential information that constitute trade secrets and/or highly competitively sensitive internal business information, disclosure of which would harm the business of MediaOne, and that are not customarily disclosed in the industry. Therefore, the slide presentation and the information it contains would be subject to confidential treatment pursuant to Section 0.459 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.459.

On August 3, 1999, the parties to the above-referenced transaction submitted a proposed protective order that would govern access to confidential documents such as the slide presentation referenced herein. Once this protective order has been adopted and released by the Commission, MediaOne will submit the slide presentation to the Commission in accordance with and subject to the provisions of that Protective Order.

An original and one copy of this letter is submitted herewith in accordance with Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael G. Jones
