

I urge your strong protection of the crucial radio astronomy band which provides us with a key window on exploring and understanding the universe. Please require that no satellite emissions exceed those limits presented in Recommendation ITU-R RA.769. This region of the spectrum must be preserved for future nobel prize winning discoveries!

Sincerely,
Glenn Spiczak, astrophysicist