FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Re: Ex Parte Submission
CS Docket No. 99-251

Dear Ms. Salas:

AT&T Corporation ("AT&T") hereby opposes the Supplement To Petition To Dismiss Or Deny filed on October 7, 1999 by Consumers Union, Consumer Federation of America, and Media Access Project ("CU et al.") in the above-captioned proceeding ("Supplement").

The Supplement argues that the Commission should not transfer the MediaOne licenses to AT&T because AT&T has engaged in dishonest conduct in connection with its filing of notification letters pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 76.503(c). AT&T has already answered the substance of CU et al.'s claims in this area in its Opposition to the complaint that CU et al. previously filed on these issues. In its Opposition (a copy of which is attached), AT&T showed that CU et al.'s allegations are baseless.

Because CU et al.'s challenges to AT&T's character set forth in the Supplement are based solely on the very same claims of misrepresentation that AT&T has already shown in the attached Opposition to be incorrect, the Supplement's request that the Commission find AT&T to be unqualified to hold the MediaOne licenses should be rejected. Neither the Supplement nor the underlying complaint should have any effect on AT&T's pending merger application.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael H. Hammer
