

RE: 98-143, 99-412

I strongly support the DROPPING the Morse Code requirement to 5 wpm for the general license. In this era of space communications, there are more important skills and relevant knowldege than some antique mode dating back to the Titanic.