Erie receives Governor's Home Town

By Rebecca Morris

Staff writer

ERIE — The village's efforts to restore a storm-damaged cemetery have received special recognition from Gov. George Ryan's office.

Erie was one of 10 communities to receive Governor's Home Town Awards, which recognize volunteer efforts to improve the quality of life throughout the state.

The village received a first-place award in the general category for communities with populations between 1,201 and 4,800.

A June 28, 1998, storm, which packed winds of more than 100 mph, damaged 84 trees and countless headstones in Erie's cemetery.

The community rallied behind clean-up efforts, with about 160 volunteers putting in 895 hours of labor restoring the cemetery over four days in July and August. The volunteers also raised more than $11,244 to help

Whiteside County was also recognized for its efforts in promoting health care. The Agape Care Center, a clinic providing free health services to the uninsured, underinsured working families and medically underserved, received the top award — the 1999 Governor's Cup.

The Agape Center is housed in the Rock River Christen Center in Rock Falls, with the church donating the space, utilities, security and clerical support. Local medical practitioners volunteer their services, and all equipment was donated by CGH Medical Center in Sterling, which also donates X-ray and
