

Dear FCC,

This ruling will be a significant inconvenience for institutions like ourselves to lose four digit dialing capabilities. Each of our campuses are identified by their block numbers and inter-campus communication is critical for our day to day school operations.