

An additional comment on the W.A.D petition for reconsideration of Amateur radio restructuring: If the Extra class license code speed is increased from the current 5wpm, what will be done with the newly minted extras? It would be a paperwork problem to downgrade them. Grandfathering them to stay extras would be easier to do. Best solution would be to avoid the problem alltogether by keeping the extra code speed at 5wpm.

Signed Robert Casey