The Arc of Sabine

The Sabine Association for Retarded Children (SARC) was founded in 1969 by a local couple who wanted to help area youth who were mentally retarded or developmentally disabled. The agency later became the Sabine Association for Retarded Citizens, and today is officially named The Arc of Sabine, though it is still commonly referred to as SARC.

SARC provides job opportunities, and educational and work training to disadvantaged citizens through an adult day habilitation program, and provides residential living services to up to 36 disadvantaged citizens in six separate community homes.

Today, the SARC serves 86 clients, and employs 53 people. The agency is funded primarily through the federal government with Medicaid dollars. It operates with a $1.5 million annual budget and is governed by a nine person board of directors consisting of local concerned citizens.

Through its adult day program, the SARC offers several products and services, including the following:

- Automotive services at Sabine Car Care. (318) 256-2202

June : Zwolle Logger's Festival - June 9 - 11, 2000

Zwolle's Logger Festival is held the second weekend of June to pay tribute to all the logging and forestry families and industries in the town and parish.

The success of the Tamale Fiesta in bringing people together and bringing tourists to the town encouraged Mayor Woods and his wife, Shirley, to begin another community celebration, the Zwolle Loggers & Forestry Festival. The first festival was held in 1995. The Festival includes a Blessing of the Fleet (logging trucks), parade, logging activities and contests, beauty pageants, music, food booths, arts and crafts, forestry exhibits.

Each year, the Zwolle Loggers Festival honors the oldest still active logger. The 1998 honoree was 82 year old Henry Remedies. Henry is still eating biscuits made each morning by his wife of 60 years. They have four daughters and dozens of grandkids.

In the 1998 hunting season, Henry found a beech tree where in 1934 he had carved his name and the date. To celebrate his return to the same location 64 years later, he again carved his name on the old beech tree, this time with a 1998 date.

Poster from the first Loggers and Forestry Festival - 1995

Michell Case, Loggers and Forestry Festival Queen for 1997

Remedies, with a remarkable memory, recalls working for 50 cents a day and $3.00 a week. He remembers most of the major timber tracts he has cut in his lifetime. Probably less than his favorite memory but one he recalls vividly, is driving the "Sun Bus." There were 24 men each morning on the bus. Upon reaching the woods, they divided into 12 two man teams, one for each end of a crosscut saw.

The organizers of Zwolle Loggers Festival philosophy is simply that a lot of lives are touched every day by trees. "We need to stop at least one weekend a year and salute the loggers and forestry industry", Mattie Sepulvado says.

Schedule:

- Friday Evening: Street dance
- Saturday: Morning ceremonies; loggers' parade; saw, loader, and logging competitions; children's events; arts and crafts; lots of food
- Sunday: final clean up; closure of events

October 14-15, 2000 - Always the 2nd Weekend of October

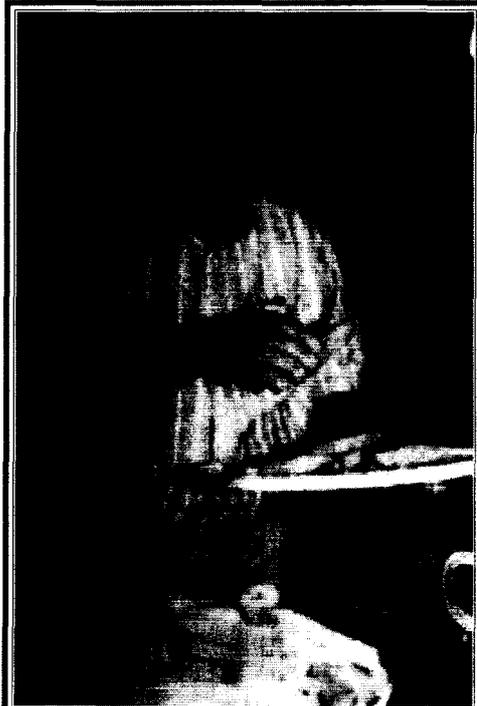

Celebrating it's 25th year in 2000!

Recalls the area's occupation by the Spanish Province of Texas. High School grounds, Zwolle, La. Fun-filled weekend of reliving the Spanish history of Texas with a plentiful supply of hot tamales, parades, concerts, crafts, dancing, and activities for the entire family.

It's odd that a place with a Dutch name could be the Tamale Capital of the World since hot tamales have a distinct Indian/Spanish heritage. But the only thing Dutch about the town is the name. Zwolle was originally an Indian village which turned into a whistle stop on the Kansas City Southern railroad. The town was named for a town in Holland. Zwolle Mayor P.M. Woods said, "The name itself attracts international visitors wanting to see the U. S. counterpart." In 1975 the idea for some type of festival was suggested by Rogers P. Loupe, who was then a member of the Sabine Tourist Commission. Mr. Roscoe Carruth, the director of the Sabine Parish Tourist Commission at the time, legitimized the idea for a Tamale Fiesta by incorporating the Zwolle Tamale Fiesta as a non-profit organization. The Tamale Fiesta calls the attention of many to the social and political influences of the Spanish culture upon Louisiana history since the 18th century.

Zwolle Tamale Fiesta celebrates the area's Indian / Spanish heritage.

Gerald Procell serves his famous tamales.

Zwolle was first settled by the descendants of French and Spanish adventurers, who intermarried with the friendly Indians, as well as the English speaking settlers from Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and the Carolinas. The Fiesta itself stems from a combination of the Indians and Spanish culinary efforts to produce the most delectable hot tamale in the country.

The Fiesta is a family event held in October of each year.

North Toledo Bend State Park

Pristine Nature - Year-Round Pleasure

On the eastern shore of one of the country's largest man-made reservoirs, clean, cool waters gently touch the edges of North Toledo Bend State Park. The Toledo Bend Reservoir provides park visitors the opportunity for a wide variety of water-related activities in a pleasant environment. More than 900 acres of pine-filled lands are available for camping, picnicking, hiking, and relaxing in the heart of nature. Whether you're picnicking for an afternoon, camping overnight, or roughing it in the woods for several days, North Toledo Bend is the perfect destination.

The Toledo Bend Reservoir covers approximately 185,000 acres, includes 1,200 miles of shoreline, and is contained by a dam completed in 1969. This reservoir project was jointly developed by Texas and Louisiana for the purposes of water supply, electricity generation, and recreation. Water-oriented recreation facilities, both public and private, are found all along the lakeshores of both states.

Nature's Setting

Recreation Among the Pines

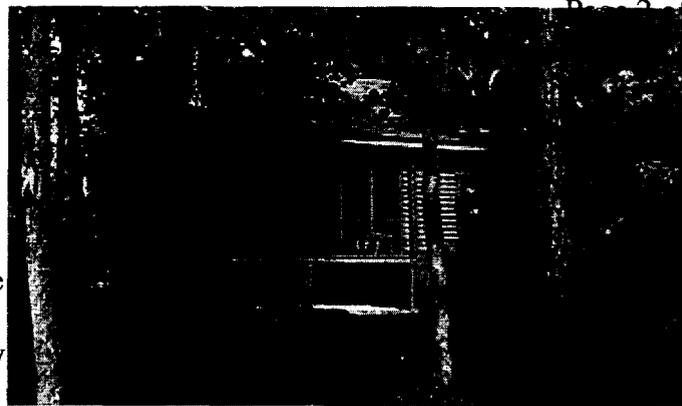

North Toledo Bend State Park is situated on a peninsula which extends into the reservoir at the mouth of Bayou San Miguel. The land consists of rolling uplands and interconnected ravines and valleys. The park site lies in a region of major lumbering activity, with a mixed pine and hardwood forest covering most of the park. A nature trail will lead you through this beautiful woodland.

A spacious and attractive Visitor Center complex contributes to the park's year-round versatility and appeal. In the main building is a meeting room which can be reserved for group functions. Also within the complex is an Olympic-size swimming pool and a bath-house. A concession area and laundry complete the complex and provide visitors with all the conveniences for a long or short stay in the park.

Adjacent to the Visitor Center complex is the picnic area, where picnic sites, shelters and a restroom are nestled among the pines. The picnic area's playground will keep the children happy and occupied.

Camping and Water Sports

North Toledo Bend is a camper's delight, accommodating those who prefer to sleep in tents and those who prefer a roof over their heads. The park includes 63 campsites, each equipped with water and electrical hookups. Ten vacation cabins at the park comfortably sleep six people each, with a maximum capacity of eight. And for those who stay in the fall or winter, fireplaces will add a warm glow. Some cabins also feature boardwalk ramps for wheelchair-bound visitors.

Large groups of visitors may reserve the group camp, which consists of five dormitories, a large bathhouse, and a central kitchen/dining building.

Water sports, of course, are an important part of the recreation opportunities available at North Toledo Bend. A boat launch area, featuring a spacious ramp, a large parking lot, and a fish cleaning station, provides access to the reservoir. Organizations associated with the Toledo Bend Reservoir host numerous fishing competitions which attract fishermen from around the country. Fishing, swimming, boating, hiking, picnicking, and relaxing--all of these activities and more are yours to enjoy at North Toledo Bend State Park. Also, a park naturalist will be on site year-round to present many nature-based programs which will bring to life the beauty of the park.
