ERRATUM

Adopted: November 6, 2000

Released: November 7, 2000

By the Deputy Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau:

1. We issue this erratum to conform the rules appendix with the text of paragraph 55 of the Competitive Networks Report And Order<sup>1</sup> concerning negotiations for the relocation of the telecommunications demarcation point(s) to the minimum point of entry (MPOE).<sup>2</sup>

2. Paragraph (b)(3) in the amendments to the demarcation point definition in Section 68.3

<sup>1</sup> Promotion of Competitive Networks in Local Telecommunications Markets, First Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in Wt Docket No. 99-217, Fifth Report and Order and Memorandum Opinion and Order in CC Docket No. 96-98, and Fourth Report and Order and Memorandum Opinion and Order in CC Docket No. 88-57, FCC 00-366 (rel. Oct. 25, 2000) (Competitive Networks Report and Order).

<sup>2</sup> The telecommunications demarcation point separates that part of the Public Switched Telephone Network under control of the local exchange carrier from that part under control of the customer or building owner. The MPOE is defined as the "closest practicable point to where the wiring crosses a property line or the closest practicable point where the wiring enters a multiunit building or buildings. See Competitive Networks Report and Order at ¶¶ 44-48.

of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 68.3, which were contained in appendix B of the Competitive Networks First Report and Order, shall be corrected to read as follows:

In any multiunit premises where the demarcation point is not already at the MPOE, the telephone company must comply with a request from the premises owner to relocate the demarcation point to the MPOE. The telephone company must negotiate terms in good faith and complete the negotiations within forty-five days from said request. Premises owners may file complaints with the Commission for resolution of allegations of bad faith bargaining by telephone companies. See 47 U.S.C. Section 208; 47 C.F.R. Sections 1.720-1.736 (1999).

3. The rule as corrected will be published in the Federal Register summary of the Competitive Networks First Report and Order.
